

Reference List

1. Bavier M., Witteveen G.: Practical Golf Course Maintenance: The magic of green keeping
2. Beard B. James (2002). Turf management for golf courses second edition: USGA publication
3. Breckland Pines Golf Course (2007) Environmental Management Plan, Lakenheath, England
4. Florida department of Environmental protection (1995 May) Best Management practices for golf courses maintenance departments
5. Golf course superintendents' association of NSW and Australian golf course superintendents' association (April 2007): Improving the environmental management of New South Wales golf courses: NSW: The Department of Environment & climate change NSW
6. Jollie J.B, Powell R.O. (1990): Environmental Guidelines for design and Maintenance of golf courses: Baltimore county, Maryland: Department of Environmental Protection and Resource Management
7. Saito Omasu Dr. (2010). Measuring the Life cycle carbon footprint of a golf course and greening the golf industry in Japan: Tokyo, Japan: Waseda University
8. Tennessee Valley Authority, The University of Tennessee, Tennessee Department of Environment & Conservation, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (2006): Tennessee Handbook for Golf course environmental management
9. The Australian Golf Union (1998) Environmental Strategy for Australian golf courses (1998): Victoria, Australia
10. The Society of Australian Golf Course Architects (2008) Golf Courses – Benefits to the community and environment
11. The United States Air Force Golf course environmental management (January 2008) Golf and the environment : Guidelines for the 21st century: (GEM handbook)

Reference Websites

1. Details of United States Golf Association. Retrieved from <http://www.usga.org>
2. Environmental management of NewSouth Wales golf courses. Retrieved from www.environment.nsw.gov.au
7. Details about Royal Canadian Golf Association. Retrieved from www.rcga.org
8. Details of Society of Australian Golf Course Architects. Retrieved from <http://www.sagca.golfer.com.au>

University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka.
Electronic Theses & Dissertations
www.lib.mrt.ac.lk