

EVOLUTION OF ELITE-DOMESTIC ARCHITECTURE
FROM BRITISH TO DECOLONIZATION
WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO MARITIME PROVINCES OF SRI LANKA

A Dissertation
submitted to the Department of Architecture of the University of Moratuwa in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Science
In Architecture

Wijetunge M.N.R
Department of Architecture
University of Moratuwa
Sri Lanka

2007

89482

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to offer my sincere thanks to Prof. Samitha Manawadu, The Head, Department of Architecture, University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka, for the inspirations and guidance given to me in this study.

I also offer my gratitude to Archt. Dr. Harsha Munasinghe, senior lecturer and M.Sc. Dissertation Coordinator, Department of Architecture, University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka, who always pushed me in the proper direction giving valuable advice throughout the study.

My special thanks goes to Architects Sithumina Rathnamalala and Sumangala Jayatillaka who generously devoted their time, effort and guidance as supervisors.

I also offer my thanks to Architect Chris De Saram, senior lecturer, Department of Architecture, University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka, for the encouragement and guidance given to me.

A special note of gratitude should be offered to Archt. Susira Udalamatte, who generously devoted his precious time and effort to make this study a success.

Finally, I thank my parents who stood behind me like a shadow in everything I did, in the successful completion of this study.

Electronic Theses & Dissertations
www.lib.mrt.ac.lk

CONTENTS

	Page No.
• Acknowledgement	II
• List of illustrations	III
• Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1: AN ADVENT OF PROMINENCE:
ELITE DOMESTIC ARCHITECTURE IN CEYLON, ON BRITISH ARRIVAL
1.1 Aspirations of a British colonial power in Ceylon: A brief historical overview of the contemporary global space	12
1.2 Forces determining architecture of an era	16
1.2.1 Environment
1.2.1.1 Plan-forms: A facilitator of livelihoods	17
1.2.1.2 Buildings and environment	18
1.2.1.3 Roof-forms, architectural features and detailing	18
1.2.1.4 Comfort and economy through materiality	19
1.2.2 Politics & its determinant economy	20
1.2.3 Sociological discourse: Cast-system, Elitism & Elite-life style	21
1.3 Two conspicuous elite-domestic Architectural styles of former Ceylon	26
1.3.1 Kandyan architecture	27
1.3.2 Dutch Architecture	33
Synopsis	43

CHAPTER 2: CEYLONIZATION & INDEGENIZATION, A BEGINNING OF AN END :

EFFECTS ON ELITE DOMESTIC ARCHITECTURE IN THE EVOLVING MARITIME BRITISH-CEYLON

2.1 Conflicts for a colonial domination: A glimpse of conspicuous contemporary events	45
2.2 Through the Processes of Ceylonizing and indigenizing	47
2.2.1 Turbulent politics & moves towards stability	48
2.2.2 Disastrous Economy towards revival	53
2.2.3 Sociological ambivalence of an epoch	55
2.2.3.1 Cast system & new-elitism	55
2.2.3.2 Ever-changing way of elite verve in the maritime	57
2.3 Apparent phases in Elite-domestic architecture	58
2.3.1 Phase I - Humble beginnings	59
2.3.2 Phase II - First impressions	68
2.3.3 Phase III - True identity at last	78
Synopsis	88

CHAPTER 3: BREAKING THE SHACKLES:

LEGITIMIZATION OF A 'TROPICAL ARCHITECTURE' IN CEYLON

3.1 Re-organization of worldwide system of States and Empires: A historical glimpse	91
3.2 Independence and Nationalism: Ceylon on the verge of a whole-new era	95
3.2.1 New Political arena	96
3.2.2 Post-independent economy	98
3.2.3 A new Social freedom	99
3.2.3.1 Immediate Post-independent Elitism: A Ceylonese Elite Third Culture	99
3.2.3.2 A new Social Transformation: Indigenous Tendencies of a new post-independent Elitism	100
3.3 Architectural ideologies from the Metropoles, affecting elite-domestic architecture	101
3.3.1 Rubric of Modernism Vs Post Colonial	103
3.3.2 An unsuccessful postmodernism	106
Synopsis	108

CHAPTER 4: A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS:

WORKS OF SOME CONSPICUOUS SRI LANKAN ARCHITECTURAL PIONEERS

4.1 Modernist discourse in post-colonial domestic architecture	110
4.2 A Modernist at work: Valentine Gunasekara	112
4.2.1 Pure Modernism: an alternative to a new Sri Lankan Identity	112
4.2.2 Elite-domestic examples on the way to a Pure Modernism	114
4.3 A Modern-regional Touch: Minette de Silva	126
4.3.1 An advent of ' A modern regional architecture in the tropics ': bringing the architect, craftsmen and artist together	127
4.3.2 elite-domestic examples with a modern-regional touch	130
4.4 Towards an ultimate balance through vernacular: Geoffrey Bawa	144
4.4.1 The courtyard house: a prototype for urban living	145
4.4.2 Elite-domestic examples manifesting the ultimate balance	147
Synopsis	164
• Conclusion	166
• Bibliography	172

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Fig.	Brief description	Page No.
1	Map of the World showing the mid-way location of Ceylon, its patterns of migration. & various colonial advents	15
House at Madawala in the Kandyan regions of Sri Lanka
2	The plain outside façade and tiled roof with no windows and a very few doors	29
3	planted interior courtyard & the house structure sitting on a high plinth around it	29
4	The floor PLAN showing symmetry & simplicity	29
House at Manikdiwela in the Kandyan regions of Sri Lanka
5	The plain outside façade and tiled roof	30
6	Porch The interior showing the court yard & open verandah around it on a high plinth	30
7	A bit refiner floor PLAN showing symmetry & simplicity	30
Wallauwe called 'Mahagedara' in Ukuwela, Matale in the Kandyan regions of Sri Lanka
8	The plain outside façade and tiled roof with	31
9	The interior showing the court yard & open verandah around it on a high plinth. The plastered classical columns show strong European influence.	31
10	Smaller additional court yard by the Kitchen	31
11	The floor PLAN showing more complexity in nature	31
Ekneligoda Wallauwe in Kuruvita, Rathnapura in the Kandyan regions of Sri Lanka
12	The outside façade showing the overhanging tiled roof	32
13	Looking outwards from the interior through double verandahs	32
14	The front verandah space and its classical European style colonnade	32
15	The floor PLAN showing more complexity in nature with more enclosed rooms	32
Dooranberg near Gall Fort in the maritime regions of Sri Lanka
16	The typical Dutch façade with a front masonry colonnade	38
17	Entrance way from the road of the house resting on a masonry plinth	38
18	Fenestration of the house	38
19	High roofs & oppositely arranged fenestration	38

20	floor PLAN: showing typical Dutch characteristics	38
Atapattu Walawwa near Gall fort in the maritime region of Sri Lanka
21	A refiner façade of typical Dutch character	39
22	The double verandah resting on a masonry plinth	39
23	Ornamental archway separating the Living from Dining	39
24	An ornamental window	40
25	The front door fanlight detail intricately done,	40
26	Front door comprised of a fan light and simply carved paneled timber double-shutters	40
27	Front window detail with simply carved shutters	41
28	The typical Dutch PLAN form showing the additions of Double verandahs	41
Lodge Harmony at Matara in the maritime region of Sri Lanka
29	A typical two storied Dutch façade	42
30	Entrance way from the road of the house resting on a masonry plinth	42
31	The front verandah with typical Dutch masonry columns	42
32	The front doors with simple shutters that are paneled	42
33	The PLAN form showing the typical Dutch character	42
34	A map showing the Dutch occupied maritime-Ceylon	46
35	Dress Worn by the Legislators 1920-1970s	51
36	The Composition of the Upper Ranks of the Ceylon Civil service 1920-1950	52
37	Ethnic Stratification of the colonial administration	56
A house at Wadduwa in the maritime region of Sri Lanka
38	The façade, still showing typical Dutch traits & character	62
39	The Entrance way from the front garden stepping up a masonry plinth	62
40	The front verandah paved in Terracotta	62
41	Looking out from the living room through the doorway	63
42	The main front doorway to the house with a British Adam style fan light	63
43	The turned loft window & main door fan light	63
44	Elegantly turned timber columns of the front verandah & the roof structure	64
45	The Hallway looking out through the front entrance	64
46	View from front verandah	64
47	The PLAN form: still showing strong Dutch influence with a slight deviation	65

Whist Bungalow at Mutwal-Colombo, in the maritime region of Sri Lanka

48	The façade, still showing typical Dutch traits & character	66
49	The Entrance way from the front garden showing off its overhanging roof	66
50	The front view towards the beach	66
51	Glazed front façade window detail that must have been from later times	67
52	An internal doorway of the house with a British Adam style fan light and paneled double-shutters	67

Karlsruhe, A house in Colombo in the maritime region of Sri Lanka

53	The front façade: displaying a whole new quality with a deviation from typical Dutch facades	74
54	Looking out of the front verandah	74
55	The PLAN form & front ELEVATION	75

Thistle court, A house in Ginthota in the maritime region of Sri Lanka

56	The front façade displaying a whole new quality with a deviation from typical Dutch facades	76
57	An arcade, a whole new addition	76
58	The spacious front verandah of the house on a high plinth	76
59	The PLAN form being very symmetrical and shows a slight deviation from the typical plan form evident from the time	77

Small castle-model elite houses in Colombo

60	Regina Villa in Colombo	79
61	Saifee Villa in Colombo	79

80s Club at Colombo in the maritime region of Sri Lanka

62	The building placed in the middle of the beautifully decorated garden as a work of sculpture	83
63	The PLAN form still showing influence from the previous era, yet more glamorous	83

Count de journey's mansions at Weligama in the maritime region of Sri Lanka

64	The mansion takes place on an island very much close to the shores near Weligama	84
65	The entrance verandah of the mansion	84
66	The entrance from outside into the living room	84
67	The Living room interior	85
68	The radiating octagonal PLAN form showing a bit of experiment & adventure in the planning	85

Senevirathne Walauwe at Colombo in the maritime region of Sri Lanka
69	The typical house placement during the British era at its best	86
70	The front verandah with glittering tiled floors & intricately detailed three-set columns	86
71	One of the close ups of Facades: showing off the intricacy in terms of detailing	86
72	The side of the house: showing off the drive way running through its car porch in the front	87
73	The planted courtyard of the house, open on all four side to verandahs	87
74	The PLAN form: being a house of a Singhalese elite	87
75	World in 1898, showing large colonial empires	93
76	World map of colonialism at the end of the Second World War in 1945	93
77	Four international organizations whose membership largely depends on the breakup of old empires.	94
78	On the verge of an American hegemony	94
Illangakoon house in Colombo
79	The spacious Concrete Roof terrace of the house	116
80	An interior view of the house	116
81	The living room of the house	117
82	The sculpturous round concrete staircase as a central element	117
83	Various PLAN forms of the house	118
84	SECTIONS showing various level changes	118
Nanayakkara House in Mt. Lavinia
85	The house set-back a long way from the road with a landscape garden in front	119
86	The box-like element emerging from the simple gable roof enhancing the sculpturous nature	119
87	The front verandah with sleek columns emerging from the floor	119
88	The living room opens up to the front gardens	119
89	Looking out to the street, from the Entrance foyer	120
90	A close up of a typical timber fenestrations used throughout the house which are side-pivoted	120
91	Looking through a circular opening into the private rear-garden	120
92	Looking down the passage	120
De Silva house in Mt Lavinia
93	The outside façade of the house from the road	122
94	The spacious roof-terrace for the relaxation of the family members	122
95	First floor apartment living room space with wide fenestrations	122
96	First floor apartment's roof-terrace	123

University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka.
Electronic Theses & Dissertations
www.lib.mrt.ac.lk

97	The slender staircase running up to the roof terrace	123
98	The staircases have been arranged as elements running in different angles	123
99	The doors of the apartments and such main spaces, opening up to common areas	124
100	Different wall ornamentations seen throughout the house	124
101	Ground Floor Plan showing various wall arrangements	124
102	Upper Floor Plans illustrating various living spaces	125

103	Minette with Le Corbusier in the late 1950s in Europe	126
-----	---	-----

Pieris house in Colombo

104	The plain & rater modern façade	132
105	The main Entrance door to the house with an indigenous pattern	132
106	The hand rail detail	132
107	The living room open to the garden on all sides	133
108	The internal ceiling-wall detail , showing modernist influence	133
109	Car port located next to the street	133
110	Slatted Ceiling, wooden trellis and stone walls on interior and exterior	134
111	Entrance Hall	134
112	Wall covered with from terracotta tiles	134
113	The Ground Floor PLAN form	135
114	The Upper Floor PLAN form	136

A house at Colombo 07

115	The Living room pavilion of the house open to gardens on both sides	138
116	The pond in the garden, cooling the interior	138
117	The detail of internal wall embossed with indigenous patterns	138
118	The main stair case placed like a piece of sculpture:	139
119	The outer verandah running in to the living spaces, overlooking the pond by the garden	139
120	The PLAN form: showing two perpendicularly arranged rectangular blocks	140

Amarasinghe house in Colombo

121	The living room of the house opening up to the garden	141
122	The main living room of the house	141
123	The outside blank walls of the house	142
124	Wrought-iron grille with traditional bo-leaf motif	142
125	The old fashioned "lounger" or in other words, "Sinhalese hansu putuwa" kept facing the garden	142

126	The ground floor plans of the house	143
127	The upper floor plans of the house	143
128	Geoffrey Bawa at a glance	144
Architect's house in Colombo
129	The view of the house from the 33 rd Lane	150
130	Looking in to the house through the service passage from the garage next to the street	150
131	The elegant white stairway to upper floors & terrace	150
132	A door decorated with an indigenous Batik pattern opening up to one of the court yard	151
133	One of the open court yards	151
134	One of the living rooms opening up to a small court yard	152
135	One of the living spaces decorated with both modern as well as indigenous furniture & artifacts	152
136	A series of doorways arranged in a line in reminiscent to Dutch designs	153
137	One of the many roof terraces of the house, elegant yet simple	153
138	One of the many ground floor living spaces, with a touch of indigenous & modern	153
139	The complicated ground floor PLAN	154
140	The first and second-floor PLANS	154
Gallery Cafe in Colombo
141	The view of the entrance structure from the road	155
142	Main verandah & living space opening up in to the rear garden,	155
143	The open to sky pond with closed corridors going around	155
144	Antique furniture & glassware from Dutch times used for decoration	156
145	A door way: with doors symmetrically arranged in a line	156
146	One of the sampler and smaller landscaped court yards & a verandah opening up to it	156
147	The typical façade opening up in to a garden	157
148	One of the many smaller court yards, landscaped & decorated	157
149	Upper floor private living spaces	157
150	The rather complicated ground floor PLAN	157
Ena de Silva house in Colombo
151	The plain front façade to the street with a stone-paved entrance court and drive way	161
152	Stone-paved courtyard in the middle of the plan	161
153	Looking out in to the court yard from the main living room paved with terracotta	161

154	An ornamental granite column salvage from an old building	162
155	A room looking in to a smaller side court yard	162
156	Lighting quality of the interior enhanced through niches	162
157	Intergenerational quality seen internally	162
158	A view of the structure from the garden	162
159	Ground floor PLAN: showing a conspicuous move towards vernacular	163

- It has to be noted that the Maps, Plans & Elevations illustrated in this study are not to any sort of scale as they have been altered during page settings and are just for the purpose of easier understanding of what is discussed in the Text.

University of Moratuwa, Sri Lanka.
Electronic Theses & Dissertations
www.lib.mrt.ac.lk